

Subject: SMASIS Division and TC 2024 Awards – Seeking Nominations and Reviewers - Due February 1

Dear Colleagues,

Starting this year, we are adopting a common timeline and standards for all awards under the ASME SMASIS Division. This includes the Division-Level Awards, and the TC Awards. The awards include:

Division-Level Awards. (Contact: Vice-Chair, Onur Bilgen)

Gary Anderson Award (Official ASME Award)
Best Paper in Structural Dynamics and Control (Official ASME Award)
Best Paper in Mechanics and Material Systems (Official ASME Award)
E Garcia Best Paper Award (not yet official ASME)

TC-Level Awards. (Contact: TC Award POC. See award documents.)

TC Name	Award Name
Bioinspired Smart Materials and Systems	Bioinspired Smart Materials and Systems Best Paper Award
Energy Harvesting	Energy Harvesting Best Paper Award
Active Material Technology and Integrated Systems	Active Material Technologies and Integrated System Outstanding Contribution Award
Active and Multi-Functional Materials	Active and Multifunctional Materials Outstanding Contribution Award
Adaptive Systems Dynamics and Controls	Adaptive Systems Dynamics and Controls Best Journal Paper Award
	Adaptive Systems Dynamics and Controls Best Conference Paper Award
Structural Health Monitoring	Structural Health Monitoring Best Paper Award

The common timeline is below:

Nomination Deadline	Winner Determined	First Announcement (expected)	Award Delivery (expected)
FEB 1	MAY 1	At SMASIS	At SMASIS

SEEKING NOMINATIONS: If you are a SMASIS Division Senator, please nominate a paper, contribution, etc. to one of the awards!! Please follow the detailed instructions in the attached award documents. If there is a conflict between this common guidance and the specific award document, the common rules indicated here apply. Please note that self-nominations are accepted for some awards – see specific instructions.

SEEKING REVIEWERS: If you are a SMASIS Division Senator, please help in the evaluation process for these awards. Experienced Division Senators are highly encouraged to help. Conflicts of interest should be checked and eliminated. If you are interested in reviewing for one of the Division-Level awards, please contact the Division Vice-Chair (o.bilgen@rutgers.edu.) If you are interested in reviewing for one of the TC-Level awards, please contact the specific TC Award POC.

Note: This is an initial communication from the SMASIS Division. You may receive similar emails directly from TC award leads periodically. Smais Conference related awards (i.e., best paper, hardware, etc.) will be announced separately by the Conference leaders.

Sincerely,

Onur Bilgen,

on behalf of SMASIS Division Executive Committee Officers

Chair: Bjoern Kiefer
