Group Membership for Professionals
Participation Request Form

ASME membership

Thank you for your interest in ASME Group Membership

We are a community of engineers, academics, and researchers committed to the future of engineering. Participating in the ASME Group Membership Program will provide benefits like daily summaries of essential engineering news, complimentary and discounted award-winning publications, networking opportunities with like-minded individuals outside the workplace, and much more.
Please visit go.asme.org/GroupMembership to learn more about Membership benefits.

1. Select an authorized individual at your organization to be the primary contact with ASME.

2. Complete, save and return this writable PDF form to ASME by email to CSG@asme.org. If you prefer to fax or return the form by postal mail, please use the information at the bottom of this form.

3. An ASME representative will contact you via email or phone to review and discuss this request. Once approved, enrollment of members can be done using one of two options -- a spreadsheet to complete for the entire group or an individual form that can be distributed and collected.

The ASME Group Membership program is available to new and renewing members. Your ASME representative will provide information on our Special Group Membership Discounted Pricing and available payment methods.

Group Membership rates are based on the current professional member dues – with these special Group discounts: 25% off for new members and 10% off for renewing members. (Example: $158 US current professional dues x 10 joiners = $1,580 less 25% for first year new members – a savings of $395!)
