

Rayleigh Lecture

Application Form

The Rayleigh Lecture is awarded to individuals who have made “pioneering contributions to the sciences and applications of noise control and acoustics.”

- Supporting Technical Division: Noise Control and Acoustics Division (NCAD)
 - Award Frequency: Annual
 - Form of Award: $1,500 honorarium & presentation session at the ASME IMECE
 - Nominators: self-nominations are accepted
 - Nomination Deadline (if applicable): September 1.
 - Selection Process: Applications reviewed by the NCAD Executive Committee
-

1 Candidate Information

Name:
Title / Position:
Institution / Organization:
Email:
Phone:
Professional Website or Profile:

2 Short Statement Supporting the Nomination (20 words max)

3 Summary of Candidate's Contributions to Noise Control & Acoustics. (1000 words max)

4 Supporting Publications

Provide 5–10 selected publications demonstrating pioneering contributions to noise Control and Acoustics.

#	Type	Title	Full citation (or DOI)	Relevance and metrics
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10

5 Proposed Lecture Title and Abstract

Lecture title:

--

Lecture abstract:

--

6 Updated Resume of the Nominee

Attach an updated resume of the nominee.

7 Supporting Letters

Attach two letters (one from the nominator) in support of the nomination.