CONFERENCE SITE

The offline site (also called conference site) is used only during an active conference. This site is only accessible by authors registered to the conference. When the conference is completed, the site is pulled down after a specific point in time and is then inaccessible.

The information that was included in this site is updated after the conference and will not be available again until the digital collection is prepared. Some papers that were available during the conference will not be available when the digital collection is prepared. The digital collection is normally available approximately 12 weeks after the conference is completed.

The offline site is not the same as the site that will later become the digital collection, although it is similar. The conference site is only available to registered attendees of the conference and is not available for purchase nor is it available to agencies with subscriptions to ASME collections.

The offline site (conference site) is searchable. The papers that appear on this site have a watermark that says “For Attendee Use Only” across the header. Authors can view and download the watermarked papers one at a time, but they cannot do a batch download of all the papers.
